INTERESTING EVENTS

RECORDED BY CORRESPONDENTS OF THE PRESS.

Personal Paragraphs From Various Sections of Mendocino County—Information Gathered by Our Busy Correspondents Throughout the County.

LAYTONVILLE, March 12.—After the weather had been so warm and springlike, and the farmers were buoyant with joy and flushed with hope, suddenly and apparently without warning a storm came howling from the south, with rain and hail; snow fell on the surrounding mountains and a chill filled all the air, as on a December day, which at present writing still prevails.

Mrs. Robert White and daughter Belle of Ukiah, who have been visiting at Tenmile valley for the past month, left for their home on Friday.

Charles Capell, our genial merchant, armed capapie shotgun, knife and cartridges, took an outing last Friday, but the game he bags is few and far between.

Miss Bertha Martindale broke away from old associations on Tuesday and departed for Poonkiny, the land of soft and balmy air, for an extended visit.

Miss Cassie Leonard, who has been visiting in Long valley for a few days, left for the Sanhedrim mountains, where she intends to spend the summer. Thus one by one they leave us.

Arthur Branscomb has erected a new barn, large and commodious, on the Holman ranch, of which he is now owner. Arthur is a young man who believes in improvement; he voted for McKinley, and if there is any truth in perseverance, industry and economy, such as we used to read of in our schoolbooks, Arthur will success.

The poor unfortunate coyote of this community, though probably guilty, is to be pitied. He is branded as an outlaw; fifteen dollars is the reward offered for his capture, dead or alive, and he is hunted in every corner as a convict fleeing from justice and the custody of the law.

John Dill, the wellknown rancher, was in town Tuesday. Mr. Dill says, and he has been here a long time, that he has seldom if ever seen the grass on the mountains so luxuriant or stock doing so well at this time of the year.

John Curts opened the Black Rock school Monday last. This is John's first experience at teaching, and may it always be to him a "delightful task to rear the tender thought; to teach the young idea how to shoot."

B. Y. Gilham paid Cahto a visit last Saturday, and brought the good news that the people of Cahto are all doing well—busily engaged in gardening and otherwise tilling the soil.

L. Cassade was in town Sunday. Mr. Cassade, who believes in advancement, would have the railroad to move right along and drag us helplessly into the seething whirlpool of competition and progress.

Lyman Leonard, in the near future, intends to make an extended visit to the southern country, partly on pleasure bent and partly to seek pastures new.

The good people of this community anticipate that this, the coming summer, will be one of the most prosperous in the history of the valley. Everything points to this: Climatic conditions have been so favorable, and prices of livestock are so firm and are likely to continue so; new enterprises are to be developed here and in Jackson valley, which will give employment to scores of men; while the people in general have somewhat awakened from their Rip Van Winkle sleep, and left the ruts to seek other avenues to comfort or fortune. Q. CUMBER.

Philo Brevities.

PHILO, March 10.—Beautiful spring has put in her appearance in this villa, with the forth-coming of fruit blossoms and much verdure on the surrounding hills.

James Hanen returned to his home in Philo last Wednesday, after a two weeks' vacation in San Francisco.

J. H. Ward, proprietor of the local bark-extract mill of this place, is at the county seat on business.

Miss Eva Prather of this city departed last Saturday to take charge of the Tanbark school near Yorkville. Eva will be very much missed by her many friends here.

The practice game of baseball played on the local campus last Sunday was quite spirited for a beginning. The boys showed up well at field work and also at the stick, one or two homers being scored. Wet ground will prevent practice today.

W. H. Cooper, a traveling salesman, representing the wellknown clothing firm of Wanamaker & Brown, was at Philo last week.

Mrs. J. L. Eldridge of Christine is speedily recovering from a severe attack of lung trouble, much to the joy of her host of friends throughout the valley.

Rev. Harry C. Richardson preached a very effective sermon to a much interested audience at the M. E. church last Sunday morning.

A social dance was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Eton last Friday evening. A real enjoyable time was spent until midnight, when the guests were all treated to refreshments. When the time came for departure every one present heartily thanked Mr. and Mrs. Eton for their royal entertainment. Some reminiscences of a few of the male participants:

Prof. R. E. Brown's music couldn't be excelled. Paul Ray rooted for the dancers. J. H. Ward and R. Eton did the cakewalk admiringly, with much ease and grace. Sydney Ward and Ora Price looked very attractive in full evening dress. Joe Burke came late, but highly enjoyed himself. Marion Dutro and Tom Ruddock looked excellent as wallflowers. Georgia Clow said nothing, but rubbered.

Prof. Tom McGough waltzed gracefully. Tom Frye's collar tortured him. Maurice Prather and Calvin Ruddock discussed the outlook for baseball. Will Ward understood how to cut a figure eight. Charley Davis performed the bear dance with ease and accuracy. Carl Clow was one of the happiest guys at the dance. F. H. Brown and G. T. Clow pleasingly looked on. Preston Cook wore the latest in headdress. Tom McKay thought of school duties and danced seldom. Fred Rawles appeared in Tuexedo. RONALD.

Potter Valley Items.

POTTER, March 12—J. M. N. Haddick and wife of Coyote valley visited here with the families of E. A. Haddick and Grover King Saturday and Sunday last.

The wife and children of Dr. Myers, who have been visiting for the past few months in Healdsburg, their former home, returned recently, benefited by the change.

Frank Sweeney, A. R. Sides and Miss Grace Sweeney went Saturday last to Willits.

The following musical and literary program was rendered Tuesday evening last at the Grange hall: O, How Excellent, a chorus, being the first on the list and was well rendered by a class who prepared for the occasion; Hallelujah was next rendered by a quartet, consisting of Mrs. C. E. Clark, Mrs. A. McIver, Rev. Clark and Dr. Myers.

Miss Mabel Hopkins then executed well an instrumental solo on the piano. Next followed a class drill of little girls, whose voices blended well, considering their age, and which called forth much applause. Mrs. Jehmie Mathews, Misses Belle and Kate Busch, as a trio, next favored the audience with Beautiful Moonlight; little Inez Johnson next recited an appropriate and beautiful selection in a pleasing manner, whose title we failed to get.

A chorus, Nearer my God to Thee, was afterwards sung; Rev. C. E. Clark and wife followed next in order with The Jolly Good Laugh song, the reverend gentleman creating much laughter and applause in his character as sustaining the laughter part of the song: a selection from C. S. DeLano entitled Longing was rendered by a quintet, consisting of five ladies, with their guitars; Mrs. C. E. Clark next recited The Ride of Jehmie McNeil in a very pleasing manner.

The Bumble Bee song was then sang by the class as a chorus; Hear me Norma was next sung, after which Mrs. Linser rendered well a recitation, whose title we also failed to get, following which the song, Hark What Means, etc., was sung. Rev. Clark next appeared as Profundo Basso, a song enacted in caricature, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. McIver and Dr. Myers, also taking part in this song as pupils, the rendition of this seemed to be the crowning act of the evening's entertainment as far as merriment was concerned; a violin and piano duet was rendered well by Sam Wattenburg and Miss Mabel Hopkins, following was the chorus, Nearer Home, which closed the entertainment.

After the program was finished ice cream and cake were served. The proceeds derived therefrom was nearly $40, and is to be used for the benefit of the M. E. church South. Much credit is due those who so successfully managed, and did their part in making the evening's entertainment the success it was. VERA.

CRIME AND CASUALTY

ACCIDENTS AND INCIDENTS OF THE PAST WEEK.

A Former Resident of Mendocino Takes a Dose of Chloral—Thrown Into a Slough. A Burglary Takes Place at Willits—Resisted an Officer.

A dispatch from Los Angeles dated March 11 says that R. A. Bird, who was formerly a resident of Mendocino City, and who was for a time a citizen of Ukiah, attempted to commit suicide in the Los Angeles city prison Monday last by taking poison.

Bird has been serving as bookkeeper of the prison. The jailer instructed him to prepare a solution of carbolic acid for disinfecting purposes. Bird went to the drug room, compounded the mixture and then, taking a bottle of chloral from a high shelf, he swallowed about four ounces of the poison. He returned to his cell and lay down to his last sleep, but the jailer happened to enter and noticed his ghastly pallor. After three hours' work by physicians he was restored. When his recovery was assured, Bird said:

"This is a poor return for all your courtesy. I am sorry that I have caused you all this trouble, but it was the impulse of a moment. The delay in the decision of my appeal to the supreme court has worried me. I have been brooding over my misfortunes. I feared that my mind would give way."

Bird was the private secretary and confidential friend of Griffith J. Griffith, the capitalist. He was charged with having forged his employer's name to a check for $200. The trial was one of the most fiercely contested ever held in southern California. It is estimated that the cost to the county of prosecuting Bird would amount altogether to about $30,000. Conviction followed the first trial and Bird was sentenced to ten years in San Quentin.

It has been a number of years since Bird was here, he having left the coast without previous notice.

A Soft Snap.

B. N. Springer and wife met with an accident yesterday while coming down from their home in Potter valley. They had reached Cleveland's mill when their horse became frightened at several boys playing near the road. The animal dashed into a nearby slough, throwing out both Mr. and Mrs. Springer. Their landing place was in the center of the marsh, which was fortunate, though uncomfortable. They both received a thorough drenching and Mr. Springer was slightly injured by being struck on the right leg by the overturning vehicle. The buggy was damaged and the harness was broken in several places. The rig was soon put in traveling shape, and the gentleman and lady arrived in town without further accident.

A Midnight Melee.

Patrick Maher was given 60 days in the county jail Tuesday last by Justice Critchfield. Maher was around with the boys Monday night and ran up against the nightwatchman, George Hughes. The two mixed up for a short time and the round was in favor of Maher, whose name, no doubt, had something to do with his success. Hughes called for help, and J. A. Gilmore of Hopland came to his assistance. Gilmore grabbed Maher by the collar and in a few moments Hughes was on top. He soon reduced the culprit to submission, and Maher was landed in the city prison. In the meantime Gilmore had a racket with another party, and for some hours the night was made hideous by the cries of the infuriated.

A Possible Burglary.

E. F. Swortfiguer of Willits made a complaint to Sheriff Smith Tuesday to the effect that the fruit-dryer near that place had been entered by thieves and a quantity of prunes stored therein stolen. The fruit belonged to the complainant. Mr. Swortfiguer possibly arrived at the conclusion that there had been burglary committed from the fact that the wire fence surrounding the dryer had been torn down. It seem, however, according to the statement made by F. W. Collett to the sheriff, that the damage to the inclosure had been done by a runaway team owned by F. M. Dryden. However this may be the officers are on the lookout for clews.

The wife of Thomas Rowland presented him with a native daughter Wednesday. Mr. Rowland is an ardent Republican, and says while he would have preferred boys he can get them as long as he has the girls.

DR. PIERCE'S Favorite Prescription

"I am so grateful to you for your advice," says Mrs. Sidney B. Oakes, of Whitmell, Pittsylvania Co., Va. "When I commenced your medicines I had been treated by different doctors for three months or more, but would only receive partial relief for a short while and then would be worse than before. Was confined to my bed most of the time. At the time I commenced your treatment my left side was completely paralyzed. Had no desire to eat anything; bowels costive all the time. Nerves were all unstrung, so I could not bear the least noise. I also suffered from diseased ovaries and female weakness. But thanks to my Maker and you, after following your advice, I am able to do all my washing, sewing and house work in general. I haven't had a spasm in two months. Left off medicines about one month ago. Didn't think it necessary to continue them longer. I have taken about seven bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, seven of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and two vials of 'Pleasant Pellets.' I heartily recommend those medicines to all suffering as I was."

NEWS OF THE WORLD.

HAPPENINGS OF THE PAST FEW DAYS FROM ALL QUARTERS.

Tornado In Texas—Slavery In South Carolina—British Army to Undergo Reforms—Duke of Manchester Sued For Breach of Promise.

Dr. T. Chalmers Easton, pastor of the Eastern Presbyterian church of Washington, D. C., appealed to Andrew Carnegie for money to buy an organ for his church. When Chalmers obtained an interview with Carnegie the latter said: "I will not give a cent of money to any church that cannot meet its business obligations. I conduct my charitable affairs in a business way. A church which obligates itself to carry out enterprises, and then fails, can get no assistance from me, nor sympathy either. In fact, I think such practices in church institutions should be publicly denounced. I cannot, therefore, give you one cent of my money."

When the Duke of Manchester with his American bride arrived at Liverpool he was served with a writ for an alleged breach of promise at the instance of Portia Knight of London. Miss Knight was on the stage in New York for a short time, and is the daughter of Colonel N. B. Knight of Salem, Or., a pioneer lawyer of that city. She is 23 years of age, and always showed marked ability as an elocutionist.

During the recent heavy snowstorms in Russia 50 men were sent to clear the snow out of a railway cut near Wolovo, on the Riazan-Ural line. They were just leaving the cut when the train came down at full speed and crushed about 30 men, their clothing clogging the axles and stopping the train. Inquiry showed that the engineer and trainmen were drunk.

The grand jury of Anderson county, S. C., found that there were negroes in the convict camp guiltless of any felony, but undergoing a term of servitude under voluntary contracts which they had signed in partial ignorance. The grand jury declared that three men who employ convicts from the state were also keeping confined in the stockades negroes who for some petty cause had been sent there, although convicted by no officer of the law.

Despondent over his recent discharge from the Duluth diocese, the Rev. Francis Budzyoski, a Roman Catholic priest, shot himself in the heart at a hotel in Minneapolis and died before aid could reach him.

A Berlin dispatch says that while Emperor William was driving from the Rathskeller to the railway station he was struck on the cheek with a piece of iron thrown by a man named Dietrich Weiland. The Emperor was not seriously injured. The assailant, during an examination at the town hall, suffered from several epileptic fits. Medicaments found in his pockets showed he had been a chronic sufferer from epilepsy.

Bermuda has been selected as a fit place to bring off prize fights, and a clubhouse will be opened there to be managed by John L. Sullivan.

A tornado passed through the northwest side of Willspoint, Tex., demolishing everything in its track. Eight persons were killed and about 20 injured. Many buildings were entirely ruined and others badly wrecked. Reports from Tyrrell state that the heaviest rainfall on record occurred throughout that section, and several persons are reported drowned or missing. A storm with the fury of a tornado swept over the western part of Texarkana, and many buildings were destroyed and several lives lost. A rain and hail storm prevailed over Kansas, injuring the fruit crop. Towns bordering on Lake Michigan also suffered severely. With Chicago as the cental point, the gale circled large areas of the region, doing damage to the extent of more than $1,000,000 Great damage has been done to wheat lands and fruit trees in southern Illinois and Missouri.

By the explosion of a boiler in the Doremus laundry, 458 West Madison street, Chicago, eight persons were instantly killed, 42 injured and several are missing. It is stated that the gas used in the boiler, which was an old one, was manufactured on the premises and that a great deal of gasoline was also utilized. This may account in part for the violence of the explosion.

Nelson Morris, the millionaire packer, is planning the erection of a $2,000,000 packing-house at Honolulu. The proposed house is for the purpose of supplying the Hawaiian and adjacent islands with fresh meat without being compelled to use the present system of refrigeration. The idea is to transport the livestock to Honolulu and slaughter there.

A special rate has been fixed for the Epworth league convention, which is to be held in San Francisco in July. The round trip from Chicago will be $50, from Missouri river points $45, and from St. Louis, Memphis and New Orleans $57.50.

ABOUT PETROLEUM

It is Not the Product of Coal as Generally Understood.

A writer in the Santa Rosa Republican has this to say about petroleum, a subject in which the residents of Mendocino county are at the present time greatly interested. The conditions that obtain in Sonoma county are similar to those which exist here: In the first place let it be understood that petroleum is not a product of coal, or in any way related to coal formations. It is found in Pennsylvania in what among miners is known as "the second sand rock," and what geologists know as "the Medina sandstone." Sandstone is ancient beach sand buried so deep under other rocks that by great pressure it becomes solid. The Medina sandstone of Pennsylvania lies geologically several hundred feet above the coal, with several strata of impervious rock between it and the coal, making it impossible for either the coal or the oil to influence the other. Petroleum is a hydrocarbon, the result of decomposed kelp and seaweeds, which grew upon or were driven upon the beach sands of ancient seas. The kelp and seaweeds were probably more abundant then than now, and were deposited in thick layers by the action of the waves. These piles of vegetable matter were covered by the sands, and being kept from the air and under great pressure were not destroyed by decay as we see today, but being confined from the air gradually became oily and filtered through the bed of sand in which they were buried to the bed rock beneath, and from there into low places or basins where it is found today. With this explanation of the source and character of petroleum the next question is where can it be found, where it is not already known to exist.

The answer is: Where there exists, deep below the surface of the earth an old sea beach, where the earth has not reached the kelp and seaweeds buried beneath the sand, to oxidize and destroy it, and where there is a basin to hold the oil. The entire Pacific coast has such a beach. There is every probability that Sonoma county has more oil beneath it than has been taken from the oil fields of Pennsylvania, because the extent of the old beach sand is greater in and about this county than all the oil lands of Pennsylvania. Can we then get oil anywhere by boring for it? The answer is, No. The oil is in the basins, and a hundred wells may be bored and fail, while the next well may strike the basin in the middle and be a gusher, and the oil regions be located.

Do the mountains interfere with the basins, or in other words are we more likely to find oil in the valleys than upon the highlands? The answer is, No. The beach sand containing oil is older than any of the mountains west of the Sierras, and beneath the mountains some of the best oil wells of Pennsylvania have been found.

Fifty years ago crude petroleum was sold in the drug stores in small bottles, under the name of Harlem oil, a cure for rheumatism and kindred evils. It was obtained from a single shallow well in Kentucky. Ten years from now petroleum will be the principal fuel in California for making steam, and possibly for our houses for domestic purposes.

Newfield vs Marks.

The case of Aaron Newfield against A. Marks and the Savings Bank of Santa Rosa was on trial before Judge Mannon in the superior court Wednesday. In 1899 the superior court of San Francisco made a judgment dissolving the partnership then existing between B. Marks and M. Newfield. A large tract of land belonged to the partnership, and the court put it into the hands of a receiver. A mortgage was foreclosed on a part of the land, and the receiver was ordered by the court to sell the equity of redemption, and he sold it to A. Marks for $1000. Then M. Newfield sold the same equity of redemption to A. Newfield for $100.

In the meantime A. Marks had sold his certificate of purchase from the receiver to the savings bank of Santa Rosa. In the present suit M. Newfield sued A. Marks and the bank to recover the land. Before Judge Mannon Wednesday, Attorneys T. L. Carothers of Ukiah and J. F. Bluxome of San Francisco contended the equity of redemption from the mortgage sale was the individual property of the partners, and that the sale by M. Newfield, when the plaintiff offered to redeem his money, should have been accepted and a deed given him.

On the other side McGarvey & Bledsoe of Ukiah and M. S. Eisner of San Francisco alleged that the receiver had the exclusive possession and right of sale of the property in dispute. And this in brief is the knotty problem to be solved by Judge Mannon, who took the case under advisement.

DEATH OF J. S. HITTELL.

The Passing of a Noted Pioneer of California.

John S. Hittell, who for fifty years past has been intimately connected with this state's history, passed peacefully away at his home, San Francisco. Friday morning last. For the last three weeks Mr. Hittell had been suffering from an illness which sapped the little strength the aged historian and journalist possessed. Notwithstanding the care and attention he received he gradually weakened and his death was not unexpected.

John Sherzer Hittell was an author and journalist of world-wide reputation. As early as 1857 he published a book entitled, Evidences Against Christianity, which drew forth favorable criticisms from the critics of that time. His Mining in the Pacific States, published in 1862, and Resources of California, given to the public in 1863, attracted a great deal of attention to the golden state. He was also the author of History of the Mental Growth of Mankind in Ancient Times, Spirit of the Papacy and the History of San Francisco. During the early days of this state he was connected with many of the leading papers and magazines. Mr. Hittell was born in Jonestown, Pa., in 1825, and received his education in the Miami university, from which he graduated in 1843. He came to California in 1849. He was a brother of Theodore Henry Hittell, also an author of wide reputation. The deceased was uncle of Attorney Frank Hittell, who attended the funeral Sunday.

From Board of Trade.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—Editor REPUBLICAN-PRESS: I see from your paper of March 1st that you are getting out a pamphlet on Mendocino county. While your county, for the time being, has withdrawn its affiliation from this organization at a time, by the way, when of all times it ought to have remained with us, nevertheless, we would be glad to have some of your Mendocino literature. We can use it here and at Buffalo to the very best advantage. We can put every copy furnished in the hands of people who will want just the kind of information it contains, and will gladly receive and distribute all you can spare us. In the meantime, I would suggest that you bring the matter before your people and supervisors of renewing their affiliation with the state board of trade and building up their exhibit, as just at this time, when the tide of home-seekers is in our direction, there is no reason why you should not be in a position to receive your share. I will be glad to hear from you on the subject and particularly as to what you can do in the matter of literature, in the meantime I remain Truly and sincerely yours,

J. A. FILCHER,
Secretary and Managers.

Water Company Case.

Judge Angellotti of Marin county sat in the superior court Saturday last to hear arguments on a motion for a new trial in the water case. A. J. Bledsoe argued that it was necessary for the plaintiff to prove a contract between this city and the Water company, to furnish water for extinguishing fires, before any liability could be attached to the company, and he went through the record of the testimony in an effort to show that a contract had not been proved at all. J. E. Pemberton made the argument in reply, and took the position that the Water company was liable, whether there was a contract or not. He said the company was bound by the law to furnish sufficient water to extinguish fires, and if it didn't do so it became liable for damages for property destroyed. Judge Angellotti said, upon the conclusion of the argument, that he had great doubt on the question, whether a contract was not necessary to sustain the action, and if so, whether the plaintiff had proved any contract. He would give the motion careful consideration, he said, as it was possible that errors had been committed in the trial.

Remember, I am at all times ready to trade for anything you have in the produce line, for which top market prices will be paid.

Yours for business,
H. W. SHUTLER.

SOUTH AFRICAN WAR.

A dispatch from Aasvogel Kop, dated March 9th, says that General De Wet has escaped northward with 400 men. Now that General De Wet is back in his country it will be almost impossible to operate against him.

CAPE TOWN, March 8.—The Boers lost 40 killed in an engagement with an armored train near Rooenogte. They mistook the train for one loaded with horses and allowed it to come within range, whereupon fire was opened from the train and the Boers fled, some of them abandoning their rifles.

LOURENZO MARQUES, March 8.—General Kitchener has granted General Botha a seven days' armistice to enable him to confer with the other generals.

It is understood that Mrs. Botha, who was deeply affected by the hopeless plight of the Boers, did her utmost to induce her husband to accept the British terms.

Lord Kitchener, at the meeting between him and General Botha on Feb. 27th, said that a general amnesty would be granted to all who would surrender, as well as to all prisoners, except those Cape Dutch who, being British subjects, have actively fomented Boer resistance. General De Wet and Mr. Steyn were, however, expressly excluded from the amnesty. If peace were concluded the government would assist in rebuilding the farmhouses and help restock the farms. Those guilty of acts of treason would be excluded from these benefits.

De Wet told Botha that on his part the war had become one of revenge, and he intended to do all the mischief he could.

The Boers made an unsuccessful attack on Lichtenburg. The British lost 16 men killed and 20 wounded. The Boer general, Celleries, was killed.

General French reports the capture of a 14-pounder Creusot, with carriage complete, and one Hotchkiss, making a total of seven guns. In Cape Colony large quantities of ammunition, rifles, horses, oxen, etc., have been captured.

IN THE PHILIPPINES.

General MacArthur has directed all department commanders to release one prisoner for every rifle surrendered. An insurgent who surrenders his gun will be permitted to name the prisoner to be released, provided no exceptional circumstances require this man's detention, in which case another selection will be allowed.

Lieutenant West, with the gunboat Laguna de Bay, surprised an insurgent camp on the island of Talim, capturing 81 insurgents. Many small detachments in various localities are surrendering daily.

Judge Taft, president of the Philippine commission, telegraphed Secretary of War Root at Washington that a great quantity of firearms were captured and many insurgents surrendered, captures and surrenders both being due to the co-operation of natives. He says the commission has organized five provincial governments, and the situation is now very satisfactory.

Lieutenant C. Mahew Arnold of the staff of the admiral of the British fleet in Chinese waters, returned to Hongkong after traveling extensively in the Philippines. From an independent military man's point of view he says the Americans will complete their campaign before the British do in South A severe policy is in operation, and the natives are in terror. "There is the greatest activity," he says, "in all quarters, not only in killing and wounding, but in the burning of hundreds of barracks and shelters and huge stores of rice and provisions, which are kept by the natives for the rainy months. Numerous villages and barriers are being wiped off the face of the country every week. If the war is kept up for long it will mean the extermination of the Filipinos as a race."

Count Tolstoi was formally excommunicated by the holy synod of the Greek church.

Messages are now being transmitted by wireless telegraph between Honolulu and the principal islands forming the Hawaiian group.

Charles M. Schwab, president of the United Steel trust—the biggest trust in the world—has a salary from that concern of $1,000,000 a year. He began life as a common laborer, without education.

At St. Luke's hospital, New York, Lewis J. McKenna had his stomach removed and several malignant growths around it cut away, and the stomach restored to its former place. The physicians say he will be up and around the ward in a few days.

Ernest J. Walter, a Schuyler (Neb.) merchant, was arrested for attempting to blackmail Senator Thomas Kearns of Utah out of $5000. He used the mails for this purpose, and he also wrote to the senator's wife demanding $2500, and stated that if he did not get it he would kill the children.

Mrs. M. J. R. Tyler, a well-known Chicago club woman and social leader, has accepted a position as matron in a woman's model lodging-house at 523 Ewing street, Chicago. At present lodgings are furnished at 10 cents a night. Lodgers are also provided with meals at low figures. No transients are taken in who are able to pay for accommodation at ordinary hotels.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.
